

Polish

EID has the capability of chemically enhancing the surface of any diamond, transforming its surface from a matt & dull surface to a high gloss & shiny diamond.

Etch

EID has the capability to specially ETCH the surface of the diamond for micro engineering electroplating applications, facilitating strong nickel diamond clamping characteristics.

CRT

EID has developed a specialized technology with the capability of rounding octahedron crystals, for customized engineering applications.

